ORDER DISMISSING APPLICATION FOR REVIEW

On January 22, 2014, the Self-Insured Employer-Petitioner, District of Columbia Public Schools, filed its Application For Review (AFR) seeking to appeal the December 23, 2013 Compensation Order (CO) that awarded Claimant medical treatment for his feet, left eye, and post traumatic stress disorder. At the time it filed the AFR, Employer asked for an extension in which to file its supporting memorandum stating:

Due to the press of other business and the recent administrative closing of the government for inclement weather, undersigned counsel needs additional time to prepare the supporting memorandum.

By Order dated January 24, 2014, Employer was granted until the close of business on January 31, 2014, to file its opposition. On January 30, 2014, Claimant filed an Opposition to the extension request.

Review of the administrative file establishes that Employer has not filed the memorandum.

Therefore, Employer's Application for Review is hereby DISMISSED. Bonaparte v. D.C. Office of Tax and Revenue, CRB 13-096, AHD No. PBL 12-047, DCP No. 30120156427-0001 (Sept. 26, 2013), *Young v. IT IS SO ORDERED.
